

Please postpone the vote on the FCC rule change and allow Congress to discuss/debate the rule change before the Commission votes. This change is too important to act too quickly without taking into account its many ramifications. The airwaves in the United States should not be allowed to be in just a few hands -- the "freedom of the press" and of our democracy depends upon a diversity of viewpoints and a wide variety of information being available on our airwaves.